Publication Release for Photographs/Diagrams NSWOC Advance

Nurses Specialized in Wound, Ostomy and Continence Canada (NSWOCC) has the right to publish the photography and/or diagrams listed below in an article to appear in the NSWOC Advance. NSWOCC will also have rights to republish photos or use published photos on its website, www.nswoc.ca, and as part of any other promotion of the issue in which the photographs appear.

The photographer/owner is responsible for obtaining permission from all individuals who appear in these photographs prior to submitting photographs to NSWOCC or its representatives. All liability for this permission shall remain with the photographer/owner. The photographer/owner will be provided with a photo credit for any published photos as requested below. If permission is being granted by the author, on behalf of the photograph owner, signature confirms that the author has received permission in writing from the owner for the above use.
